

HALLOWEEN

THE SECRET OF THE DOLL

After a while I looked out the window and I saw the swing swinging. I thought it was the wind, but the leaves of the trees were not moving, so I decided to go out to see why it was moving on its own, I opened the door and I got closer I saw that there was a girl on the swing.

- What a fright you've given me! - I told my neighbor Clara.

The next morning my mother woke me up and she told me that we had to go to Clara's funeral because she has been hit by a car two days ago.

When I was almost asleep, I notice that someone touched my and is calling me, I turned and it was Lily my doll, she told me: "Come, come."

She took me to the garden and I started digging a hole in the middle of the night. I kept digging and a head appeared, it was my mother's, so I started to cry.

When I woke up I was lying in my bed, I got up running and went to the bedroom of my parents, my mother was sleeping. What a fright! It had all been a dream.

I looked out the window and I saw the doll, she swinging on the swing. She looked at me and said: "Come, come."

Anca Sobisaca